UNOPA

Date and Place The December 9, 1986 UNOPA Luncheon was held in the Omaha Room at the Nebraska Center for Continuing Education.

Call to Order President Jan Wassenberg called the meeting to order.

Minutes Betty Wurster made a motion to approve the November minutes. Norma Wever seconded the motion. Motion carried.

Announcements Jan announced that 140 members were in attendance today. Also, the Hospitality Committee will be holding a drawing for door prizes after the program.

Old Business None

New Business Jan wished Velma Janzen a Happy Birthday. There was no other new business.

Introduction of
Dr. Griesen Jan introduced Dr. James Griesen; he is the Interim Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs. She also thanked him and all the Vice Chancellors for their support of UNOPA.

Dr. Griesen greeted everyone and told us what Student Affairs was all about; he also named the many offices that make up Student Affairs. Dr. Griesen talked about the budget situation here at the University and how it affects us all.

Program Kay Hartmann, Program Chairman, introduced Twyla Lidolph as our guest speaker. Twyla is the Home Economics Extension Agent at the Lancaster County Extension Service.

Twyla gave an illustrated talk on "Boxes & Bows". She gave a demonstration on making boxes, and she showed us several different sizes. Twyla also showed us how to make gift bows.

Door Prizes Jan introduced Jolene Allen, Hospitality Chairman. Jolene then introduced her committee; Brenda Allacher, Cathy Miller, Anita Abele, Bernice Goemann.

The members of the Hospitality Committee then drew names for thirteen door prizes. The recipients were: Deb Bitnenieks, Mary Buell, Dorothy Johnson, Bev Martin, Sheila Perry, Janice Schaal, Jan Severa, Marilyn TenHulzen, Jeanette Theer, Mary Timblin, Janet Wagner, Jean Willis, Judy Yeck.

Jolene thanked everyone for the toys, hats, and mittens. These articles will be given to "Operation Santa Claus."

UNOPA

Date and Place The November 11, 1986, UNOPA meeting was held in the Great Plains Room at the East Campus Union.

Welcome and Call President Jan Wassenberg welcomed all UAAD and UNOPA to Order members and guests. She also introduced the head table and called the meeting to order.

Minutes Kathy Ryan made a motion to approve the October minutes. Jane Agee seconded the motion. Motion carried.

Announcements Jan thanked Audry Schardt for her report on the NEOPA Fall Conference in Wayne, Nebraska.

 Jan made an announcement about a workshop entitled "Reflections of Ourselves--Women's Lives" being held November 14-15, 1986. This workshop is sponsored by the YWCA and Lincoln-Lancaster Commission on the Status of Women. Registration fees are on a sliding scale.

New Business Connie Husa asked for two or three members to serve on the Ways and Means Committee. For information contact Connie at 2-3181 or call Jan Wassenberg.

Old Business None

UAAD Faye Moulton, President of UAAD, conducted a short business meeting.

Program Kay Hartmann, Program Chairman, introduced Otto Schultz as today's speaker. Mr. Schultz is a Chaplain at the Independence Center, and the program title was "If Someone Close to You Drinks Too Much."

 Kay also introduced Janet Crawford from the Health Center. Kay thanked Janet for her help in getting Mr. Schultz to speak at this UNOPA/UAAD Meeting.

 Mr. Schultz talked about "flashing our lights" at the people we care about who might have a problem with substance abuse. There are several ways of doing this; i.e., expressing our concern, confronting that person with the facts of their behavior, offering education, and offering help and hope. This is what he calls Process Intervention.

Meeting Adjourned The meeting was adjourned by President Jan Wassenberg.
